The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Trainor (4,423,084) in view of Ross (5,632,596) and for reasons set forth by the Board of Appeals and for reasons of record used in the last office action in rejecting claims 1-27.

Applicant has amended claim 1 to recite "a single pass" in place of "one pass". No unobvious difference is seen between these two phrases. Applicant urges that the amount of oil, additives and emulsifiers is not in Trainer. This has been considered but is not persuasive because the claims do not require any particular amounts of any of these ingredients. With regard to new claim 28, no unobvious or unexpected difference is seen between the product resulting from the present process and the product resulting from the claim. Applicant urges that the references are not combinable. It is not seen that the claims and application record are in a substantially different condition than they were when the Board of Appeals in their decision of September 30, 2004 affirmed the application.

Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear as to what is intended by the product features of claim 28 because applicant has compared to an unknown.

Cancellation of this claim is suggested.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
